

New Madrid Earthquake Emergency Preparedness Conference

July 7 & 8, 2009

University of Illinois Extension—Southern Region, AJMPU Unit
In collaboration with Extension Services in Arkansas, Indiana, Kentucky, Missouri, and Tennessee

This years conference is designed for everyone:

Homes & Families

Citizens
Teachers
Educators

Local or Faith Based

Elected Officials
Businesses
Ministers

Regional

Emergency Management Personnel
Emergency Responders

Topics this year include:

Ready Business—a program to prepare your business in the event of disaster

Map Your Neighborhood—a community program that encourages neighbors to work together in preparation for disaster

Preparing Red Cross Shelters—Red Cross Directors will discuss what you need to do to get your sight certified to be a Red Cross Shelter

Shaking Down Earthquake Resources—University of Illinois Extension Educator, Duane Friend, will discuss some of the best sited to find disaster resource information

Protecting American Roads—state officials will discuss plans for protecting roads and what emergency evacuation routes will be in the region

New Madrid Catastrophic Planning—will be discussed by Jim Wilkinson, CUSEC Director

Engaging Faith Based Organizations in Your Plan—a coordinated message for all faiths to work collaboratively with emergency management to help others in all phases of disaster

Registration information:

Register before June 22nd.

Location: Harrah's Conference Center,
100 East Front Street
Metropolis, Illinois, 62960

Time: The Conference begins July 7 at noon, and concludes July 8 at 2pm.

Registration Fee: Only $50.00 per person
(3 meals included)

Hotel Info: A special rate of $59.99 per night is available for your hotel reservations, please refer to block code S07ECOL and mention the Earthquake Conference. To reserve a room, please call 618-524-2628

Registration for the Conference can be made online at <http://web.extension.uiuc.edu/ajmpu/> by check or credit card or by emailing prepares@uiuc.edu If you have any question or need help with registrations, call Linda Poston at 618-833-6363 or email at poston@illinois.edu.

UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS
EXTENSION

